

James Monroe, President of the United States of America.

To all and singular to whom these presents shall come Greeting: Whereas a Treaty between the United States of America and the Cherokee Indians was made, and concluded, on the twenty fourth day of October, one thousand eight hundred & four, in the Garrison of Tellico on Cherokee ground within the United States, by Commissioners on the part of the United States and certain chiefs and warriors of said Nation, on the part, & in behalf of said Nation, which Treaty is in the words following to wit:

Article 1.

Articles of a Treaty between the United States of America and the Cherokee Indians.

Daniel Smith & Return J. Meigs being commissioned by Thomas Jefferson President of the United States, with powers of acting in behalf of the said United States, in arranging certain matters with the Cherokee nation of Indians;—and the under written principal chiefs representing the said nation, having met the said commissioners in a conference at Tellico, and having taken into their consideration certain propositions made to them by the said commissioners of the United States; the parties aforesaid have unanimously agreed and stipulated, as is definitely expressed in the following articles:—

Article 1st. For the considerations hereinafter expressed, the Cherokee Nation relinquish and cede to the United States, a tract of land bounding southerly on the boundary line between the State of Georgia and the said Cherokee nation;— beginning at a point on the said boundary line northeast-erly of the most northeast plantation, in the settlement known by the name of Waffords Settlement, and running at right angles with the said boundary line four miles into the Cherokee lands; thence at right angles southwesterly and parallel to the first mentioned boundary line, so far, as that a line to be run at right angles southerly to the said first mentioned boundary line, shall include in this cession all the plantations in Waffords Settlement so called as aforesaid;

Article 2^d. For and in consideration of the relinquishment & cession, as expressed in the first Article; the United States, upon signing the present treaty, shall cause to be delivered to the Cherokees useful goods wares & merchandises to the amount of five, five thousand dollars, or that sum in money at the option (timely signified) of the Cherokees, and shall also cause to be delivered annually to them, other useful goods to the amount of one thousand dollars or money to that amount, at the option of the Cherokees, timely notice thereof being given, in addition to the annuity heretofore stipulated, and to be delivered at the usual time of their receiving their annuity;

In Witness of all & every thing herein determined, between the United States and the Cherokee nation; the parties have hereunto set their hands and seals, in the Garrison of Tellico on Cherokee Ground within the United States, this twenty fourth day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and four; and in the twenty ninth. Year of the Independance & Sovereignty of the United States;

Witnesses.
